Rules:

1. To be eligible for competition, whether singly or in groups, animals must be bonafide property of exhibitors, except where otherwise specified. Certificate of registration or transfer showing ownership must be produced by exhibitor if requested by the superintendent of cattle. In the classes for Get of Sire and Production of Dam, animals need not be owned by exhibitors.
2. The owner of the dam at the time of service shall be considered the breeder of the animal.
3. All cattle either dairy or beef over six months of age must be registered in the owners name. Under 6 months a carbon copy of the application must be shown as proof of pedigree. The competitors must appear in the ring promptly at the call of the Superintendent, as judges will be instructed not to delay their decisions under any circumstances.
4. Firms and co-partnerships entering animals for competition must be in existence sixty days prior to the date of closing entries, and all cases must be bonafide and affidavits of the age of the firms may be requred by the management. Firms and co-partnerships entered into the show for purposes will not be recognized by the association, but cattle bred by a member of the firm or company shall be considered as bred by the company. Should temporary sale or transfer of an animal be discovered the exhibitor and proper owner may be barred from any and/or all future shows
5. Every female over 24 months must have produced a living calf within 12 months or prove to be with a calf. Every bull 36 months old must have dropped to service a calf within 12 months previous to the opening date of this show, to be eligible to compete. A freemartin heifer shall be barred from showing until she has become of such age as to be proven to be a breeder.
6. Any exhibitor making a false or misleading statement, exhibiting cattle that have been artificially fitted or treated, showing an animal out of proper class, substituting one animal for another without proper correction of records at the cattle superintendent's office before entering ring, or any other dishonorable practice, shall forfeit all premiums.
7. Judges must not award a prize to any unworthy exhibit. It is the intention of the management that no premium or distinction of any kind shall be given any animal that is not deserving
